It was with dismay that we recently learned of Christa's death. Our mother, Ms. Anna Korsch, formerly Brendemühl, then living in Hamburg-Altona, was friends with Christa for a long time. Even when Christa went to America, the two of them had mail and telephone contact for years. Meanwhile, our mother will soon be 94! She always has fond memories of Christa and her husband. My sister was also very fond of Christa because she was mostly cheerful and in good spirits. I was still too young then, only knew her from photos. She was beautiful! Greetings from Germany, Petra and Christiane wish you

I have not seen Christa in a long time, but my memories remind me of how she was such a sweet person. I will pray for all the family and they share their grief and memories of Christa.

RIP Missy Chrissie. So many memories, many laughs. Good and bad times shared. 42 years...wow. We watched our children grow up and we enjoyed many happy times in our neighborhood. You have gone with our lord to join George and Connie. Rest in peace forever my friend. Love, Lillie Ritz
