I was so sad to hear of Uncle Jimmy's passing. I was very fortunate to spend some time with him on various excursions with the siblings after my dad died. He always had a funny story to tell that eased my sadness over losing him. I take some comfort that they are together now. Condolences to the whole family. Jimmy will be missed.

My fondest memories of Uncle Jimmy will always be our family Christmas parties. He always made them so fun and special. I think his favorite part was the Christmas carols especially the 12 days of Christmas. That song always makes me think of him.
