After the passing of my ex-mother-in-law age 94 hours before Emmett, I can remember a humble gentleman telling stories at his home in New Orleans with his daughter, wife and friends about delivering beer to his customers. Surely, he will be missed by his extended family. R.A. Skip Galan

Poppa, so many memories I cant even count: funny, good, sad, we had it all. I can talk about any one of them but the greatest impression you leave with me is this...your life on earth has been the greatest example of how a man puts God first in everything, how he adores and truly loves his wife with everything he can give, how important family truly is, and how to be a faithful servant to the Lord. The amount of people that you have touched on earth is immeasurable. Because you were such a faithful servant to the Lord, the Lord took care of you and I see that even now. You will truly be missed by family, friends, and even though you are with God now, he has lost one of his best disciples on earth. Big shoes for anyone to fill. Thank you for being the matriarch of our family and leading by example. I love you ALWAYS! LOVE Bek aka FISHMOUTH

Dad, I sure am going to miss you and all your corny jokes and sayings. You were truly a very special father-in-law and one of a kind. You will always have a very special place in my heart and I will cherish the many times we spent together as a family for the last 42 years at the camp, in Mississippi, and in Florida. Those were some of the best times. I look forward to seeing you again. Love you forever, and thank you.
