I'm still in disbelief that my friend is gone. I have countless memories and funny stories to cling to but they're cold comfort now. Mrs Mary Kay, Doc, Tom, Kay & Brenda please know that I thought of Jim as family and loved him like a little brother. Thank y'all for sharing him. I send love and peace to all of you. I remember all of us playing in the swimming pool together, Jim was putting Brenda and I on his shoulders and throwing us out into the water. Taught me how to play several water sports games, and the last time I saw him at Des Arc at Aunt Ediths, He and I talked of growing up and all the fun times we've all had. It was a very happy & delightful conversation that I will hold close to my heart. He loved his family more than anything, & He loved deep and was a true friend and a good person. That is a moment in time that I will always cherish. Gone but never forgotten. R.I.P.&L Jim, until meet again, Fly High Brother. ❤️😭
