Thomas Bair posted:

Paula was my dear friend who I loved and respected and cared about and worried over for all of the 18 years we knew each other. She was a woman of strength and caring that anyone would be lucky to know for even a minute. I already miss Paula's presence in my life and suspect that will remain for a very, very long time. It's not possible to forget how much she helped and supported me and gave me encouragement to keep going when the going got tough. She spoke often about her family and especially her children and grandchildren. They were really the light of her life as I knew her. Thank you for being such a big part of my life, Paula! I love and miss you.
