Hearts and prayers are with our Reed cousins. Fond memories of Uncle Jerry — fishing and duck hunting trips with him were never short on conversation. As kids visiting in Riverwood and Reed Lane can remember his booming welcomes and big ole smile. And he was always good for a story about our dad and their shenanigans back in the day. God Bless and comfort you guys, Paul, Julie, Carson, and Micayla

We will miss you, Dear Neighbor. We moved next door after losing our house to a fire and losing our grandfather not long after that. You had lost Mrs. Marjorie 2 weeks before we moved in. God has a way of orchestrating things! We are so grateful for our time with you. You were a pseudo-grandfather (Pops) to the kids and a great friend and confidant to us. You are forever a good part of that season in our lives Love- The Fontanilles
