Thoughts and prayers to the Brisolaro family during this difficult and trying time. I was saddened to hear the news of Uncle Juniors passing from Sharon. I loved having mini conversations with Uncle Junior. He always spoke highly of his family. He always asked how my husband, children and my siblings were doing. He always kept my Mom, his sister Margy, and my brother Eddie, enrolled in prayers which meant quite a lot to us. It breaks my heart that I can not come in town for his funeral. Uncle junior lived a wonderful life full of energy. I know he is celebrating with Aunt Geri, his parents, siblings, and friend up in heaven. He will me missed tremendously. Much love,Darlene Lee and Family
