Carl was not only my stylist (15 yrs), he was my friend. We had some awesome conversations while I sat in his chair. I knew I could call him even if it wasn't hair related, and I did. He was such an incredibly nice man, in a world where nice men are rare. My deepest condolences to Carl Sr, Mason, Britni, and Sophie and the rest of Carl's family and friends. My heart is breaking. Carl, I am so sorry you were alone and am no longer with us. Your son will now take your place and grow up quickly which you would be amazed at him and how he is dealing with your death (but I can hear you now - you always had faith in our boy). I really hope you are resting peacefully and are reunited with the ones you held close in your heart; your mom, Traci, Uncle Dud, Aunt Sophie, your friend Joe, Mr. Herb and your grandparents. I would always say you had more love for animals than humans because you were so driven to protect animals that were abused and/or neglected. You saved so many! I think in lieu of flowers you would want local animal shelters to benefit. You were a hard working man and accomplished a lot; especially a successful business since 1987. We were distant but not far - it will be weird not having you in our lives. Rest easy and in peace; you are in my heart....

Carl was more than a barber who cut my hair on a monthly basis, he was a friend. My deepest condolences to his family. We had been friends for over 40 years. It is still difficult for me to believe that he is not here any longer. He will be sorely missed. Rest In Peace my friend. Jimmy

I am sad to hear of Carl's passing. I came across this notice after the shop was dark at my appointment today. I was one of Carl's first customers all the way back to JST in 1979 or '80 and he was the only person to cut my hair for 40 years. Rest In Peace, my old friend. I will miss you. Kerry Townson

I remember Carl speaking highly of you Mr. Jackson...please know he thought of you as a friend and not a client.

I knew Carl from a different lifetime ago when we were young lads growing up in New Orleans in the old neighborhood around Mc Donough #31 school, Brugier's Food Store and Lucy's Sweet Shop creating mischief...Tom Sawyer stuff...boys will be boys. I was to think about these days many times throughout my life. I was so very sad to here of your passing. The saying "he's in a better place now" may not apply here. The best place for you to be now...is still with us. That better place could have waited until a little later on. Rest well ole friend.

I'm sorry Devyen...I know he was a link you had with your dad. Carl loved you very much and was proud to be your Paran. We can be hopeful that he and your dad Joe are at peace and are reunited! They had a blast in their younger years; let's hope they are now! I love you!
