I worked with and for Don at both South Central Bell and AT&T in the 1970s and 1980s. A wonderful friend and supervisor, Don was the consummate PR professional and practitioner. I will never forget his many kindnesses to me. Sincerest sympathy to his wife and family. Mickey Noah Milton, GA

We have known Don and Carolyn for thirty years at St. Timothy UMC in our Sunday School class and the choir. Besides being the church supervisor of construction projects, Don and I shared a love of owning books.

To the family: Don and I both worked for the Bell System for many years. I first met Don in the late 1950's, when he was located in Mansfield, Louisiana. He was always a skilled and dedicated employee. Don was able to get along with almost everyone. His friendly nature and quick smile served him well. I always considered Don to be a friend. So, I will miss seeing him at the church. My condolences to each member of his family, especially Carolyn. Jerry Andrews BellSouth retiree
