I have been privileged and honored to have known Theresa and your family for 40 years. All of you have made me feel like a part of your family and I am tremendously grateful for that. I have been lucky to have had such an intimate relationship with you all. The world is now missing 2 of the most wonderful people to have sat foot on this planet. The nine of you, I am sure, can appreciate just how fortunate you are to have had them as parents and I know you will all continue to cherish that and their memories the rest of your lives. My sincerest condolences and warmest regards for your loss. Mike Vance
