You loved life; to sing and dance. You taught yourself how to play the accordion and you played it well. You had a beautiful voice and, as a young woman, you often sang at Eagles events. You were a talented seamstress, fantastic cook and a master cake maker. You did everything with excellence and joy. But, your best gift was your great love for children and animals. I miss you every day. Thank you for all the wonderful moments and days we had together.
