This was the most amazing caring man. Many of us was honored to work with him. Many of us had the pleasure of calling him friend. We watched everyday take care of his beautiful wife and to see him care for her was what marriage is all about. When he talked to her and about her you knew he loved her dearly. He cared for many patients in anyway he could. Mr Jamison is at the feet of Jesus with the angel that he talked about that helped him up after a fall. We are going to miss you.
