Pak Woon Chu

AUG 21, 1936 - JUN 20, 2020

Pak Woon Chu age 83 of Covington passed away on Saturday, June 20, 2020. He was born on August 21, 1936 in Guangzou, China to Wang Kit Chu and Pui Wah Lee Chu.

Pak is survived by his loving children David Chu and Carol Chu, his 3 grandchildren Amanda, Alison, and Alexa Chu. He is also survived by his siblings Wai Ling Yee, Wendy Fong, and Agnes Sit.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife May Chan of 48 years of marriage, his son Danny Chu, parents Wang and Pui Chu.

Pak graduated from Pok Yu School in Hong Kong. He married his love of his life May Chan on February 22, 1970. After their union of marriage together they opened several restaurants in Lake Providence and Covington Louisiana, and Selma, Alabama.

He was an intelligent, handy, hardworking, dependable, supportive, generous, appreciated, honest, selfless, respected, one-of-a-kind and so so much more. Pak had several hobbies carpentry, listening to music, and playing mahjong. His true passion was spending time with his family and friends. Those that knew him will miss him dearly. His Family members were able to say their final goodbyes at his residence where he passed away peacefully.

Due to COVID-19 social distancing restrictions, services for Pak were held privately.

The Chu family invites you to share thoughts, fond memories, and condolences online at E. J. Fielding Funeral Home Guest Book at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

I will always remember Mr.Chu as a being very kind and likeable from the moment I met him. I enjoyed that he enjoyed good food and have fond memories of our eating together when he came to town. I will be forever grateful to him for bringing Carol, David, and my nieces into our lives. You will be missed Mr.Chu.

I'm very sorry for your loss. It's a loss for everyone who knew Pak. He was a kind gentle and generous man. A true gentleman I was glad that i got to see him and spend time with him on his last visit to the Bay Area. I wish that I knew that it was going to be goodbye. I would have hugged him longer and harder. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. Love Teresa De Graca
