I shared some of my most influential years with Ms. Pat and family and until this day I still reflect and share some of the wise words she had given to me. For example, she would tell me that she believed that hell was to have regrets so to regret nothing. I appreciated her generous heart. As a young stupid adult (I was) I was fed and sheltered for quite some time and it was at a point in her life that she struggled financially. It really didn't dawn on me until I was a little older that I thought of how hard it must have been to feed another person when the struggle was so real for her to provide for her own family. I pray that she knows that I had a great deal of love, respect and appreciated her for everything. She was one of the strongest woman I have ever had the privilege of knowing. I have so many fond memories and I will cherish them all. I'm certain that God had a most special place for her eternal life in Heaven. Her love for God and her family was always shown and she will be forever missed and remembered. R.I.P Ms.Pat. Always in my heart ❤️
