Irma, you're unforgettable and after you left, I always missed your grandchildren stories which made me laugh so hard. I was so glad to have shared with you all those years and to listen to your stories on our rides together. To me you were the epitome of what a "good mother" is because of the love I saw for your family. May the Eternal guard your soul. I'll miss you. Marcia Mima, my beautiful beloved second mom, cousin, nanny, and confident. My heart has been broken in pieces since your in heaven and my world will not be the same without you. I wish I could just wake up of this bad dream, call you and hear your voice again, but I know that your departure as painful as it is, it's not a dream. God has now the most precious angel sitting next to him and I know that you will continue to send all your blessings from above. As I always told you, I am so blessed that you were in my life since the day I was born and that I am your first child, like you used to say, that caused you no pain at birth. Thank you for loving Primo and Adrian like if they were your own grandchildren. Words can't describe how much I will miss you until we meet again. Love you so , so much!! Adriana Montemayor- Garza.
