What can I say about Jenna. She was my first sister in law. I got to be in her and my brother's wedding when I was 9 years old. She taught me how to drive when i was 10 years old. She took me to Ponchatrain Beach for the first time. It was always fun at her house. She did so much for me as a kid, teenager and young adult. Jenna, you wasn't supposed to die like this. Tina Amy and Joe, my prayers are with you. Susie Core Harmel
