Mr. Wayne was such a delightful man. He always had good cheer in his voice when he spoke. I don't ever remember a time in his company that he didn't ask " How are YOU doing?", not as in polite conversation, but as though he truly cared about the answer. He could tease and take teasing, such as the affectionate nickname "D-Wayne". He loved his girls and his grandchildren very much and I know you are all missing him already. With love and sympathy ,Johanna Baldwin

Wayne was the first person I met at Lykes Bros and I knew instantly that I was in good hands. For all of us mariners re-joining ships or joining for the first time he was our point of contact and someone you could always count on. I will forever be thankful for having known and worked with Wayne and I offer my profound condolences to his family. Captain Joseph Bridges
