Lyle and I both attended Holy Cross High School in the '50's. His Mom sold Honey Lyle always brought home to her from the B farm in Little Woods. Frequently he had to make a quick visit to gather the colony together by climbing a tree and gathering the Queen Bee with all the workers hanging on to her. Lyle was always a friendly and caring person and everyone in the neighborhood knew and liked him. He leaves behind a large family and one older brother Ronny. God Bless Lyle Toomer.
