Brian Paul Logarbo Sr.

JAN 20, 1958 - MAR 15, 2021

Brian Paul Logarbo, Sr. passed away on Monday, March 15, 2021 in Covington, LA. He was born on January 20, 1958 in Baton Rouge, LA to the late Russell Joseph Logarbo and Ouida Mae Dupuy Logarbo.

Brian was the beloved husband of Dr. Ann Kay Cefalu Logarbo of Amite, LA for 35 years. He was the loving father of Brian Paul Logarbo, Jr., Joseph Nicholas Logarbo, and Patrick James Logarbo. Brian was the brother of Mona Logarbo and Nancy Logarbo Brooks (Larry). He is survived by the above, as well as legions of loving relatives.

Brian graduated from Redemptorist High School in Baton Rouge in 1977 where he was a 2-year varsity letterman in Track and Field and a member of the Key Club. He graduated with undergraduate degrees from Louisiana State University and Southeastern Louisiana University in General Studies and Finance, respectively. He then went on to earn his MBA from Southeastern following his tenure as a manager at American Bank. Though Brian experienced marked success in banking and finance as a younger man, he later in life found his true vocation as an educator and coach. Brian was a Teacher at St. Paul's School in Covington, LA for the past 19 years where he coached soccer, track and field, and founded the school's Economics, Finance, and Entrepreneurship program. He loved his students as if they were his own sons and took extraordinary pride in their accomplishments both during high school and beyond, into their adult lives. His greatest enjoyments in life were traveling, educating, coaching, and spending time with his wife and sons, whom he cherished. To those that knew Brian, he will be fondly remembered as a man of exemplary character, devout husband, and, especially to his sons and students, a father.

Relatives and friends are invited to the Funeral Mass at St. Peter Catholic Church, 125 E. 19th Avenue, Covington, LA 70433 on Friday, March 19, 2021 at 12:00 Noon with visitation from 10:00 AM until Mass time. Interment will follow the service at St. Joseph Abbey Cemetery, St. Benedict, LA. In lieu of flowers, the family invites you for to make a small donation to Pennies for Bread. Please Share a Memory on the Tribute Wall at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

One of the most thoughtful and perspective changing teachers I ever had.He taught me that it is essential that we think about the big picture of things, not just the specifics. I have carried this lesson with me through 4 years of college, and it has never failed me.For this, I am eternally grateful. He will be sorely missed!

We all hope to have teachers that will change our lives for the better, but only a few of us are lucky enough to have them. I was one of the lucky ones because I had Coach Logarbo in high school. Mr. Logarbo inspired me to get into the finance world, and it is largely because of him that I am working in public accounting. I could talk about how he laid a foundation for me economically and financially, but that is an understatement. The reason myself and the other SPS alumni are writing these heartfelt messages has nothing to do with the text book knowledge he taught. Rather, it has everything to do with the life lessons he shared that I will carry with me until the day I die. I often think about one particular message he would always mention to us. My class would often rant about rules at SPS we felt were unfair or silly, Mr. Logarbo would always laugh and smile only to say "you know guys, you're not going to remember any of that. You're going to remember the times and memories you had with each other." I think about that message all the time. I have carried that message with me from that day forward, how right he was. I just wish I could've had a chance to thank him for every lesson he taught because the impact has carried me and will carry me through the rest of my life. RIP to a wonderful father, mentor, teacher, coach, and man. He will be greatly missed. - Casey Prendergast '15SPS Forevermore

I'm sad to hear Mr Logarbo left us too soon! He was such an excellent teacher, it's hard to think of a class more enjoyable at St Paul's than his economics elective, I decided to take it a second time because the discussion was so good. I was just telling my wife a story about advice he gave us today. He had a great impact on me, thank you for sharing him with us students. Charles Guinchard 06

Ann Kay and boys, My deepest condolences. I'm still having a tough time processing this. As a St. Paul's soccer coach all these years, I would speak with Brian at every home game as we prepared for the match. Behind the scenes, he was the glue that kept everything together for the program. A few weeks ago, I ran into Brian on one of my long walks at the 4th Avenue boat launch. He was standing by the river. When I approached, he said this was one his favorite spots to just come and reflect on things when he had a class break. We chatted for a while, and I left him to his thoughts. I miss you already, Brian. Hector Vasquez

Mr. Logarbo was one of my favorite teachers at St. Paul's. I have fond memories of having him as a track coach/teacher in school, and through his economy course that he began while I was a student helped to instill fundamental knowledge of finance which grew into a career for me today. He always had a smile on his face, had a story to relate to a situation that was being discussed, and a joke or two to brighten everyone's day. His classes and mindset were geared more towards learning through life experiences rather than what was in a textbook. I will admit I lost touch with Mr. Logarbo and his son Patrick who I graduated with however his guidance and wisdom had a profound impact of my adult life. I and many others were lucky to have known him. My condolences to the family. You will be missed.

Dear Ann Kay, By heart and prayers goes out immediately to you, Brian Jr., Nick, and Patrick. Although I only got to see Brian about once a year at Manresa the past 30 years, it was very clear who his heart and soul was dedicated too! I know he loved you guys very much and wanted the best for all of you. Brian and I became friends in High School and spent another five years together at LSU. He was a true friend and always had time to truly listen and give advice as needed. I will always cherish our friendship and the many fond memories we not only shared but created together. I will always remember Brian and keep him in my prayers. Sincerely Bill Bailey
