To my special cousin, 13 days my senior I remember making faces at you across Nan's table while we sat punished. I remember standing in your wedding and sharing one of the happiest days of your life. I remember your proud papa calls announcing the birth of your children. I remember laughing like hyenas as we tried to play volleyball at the Abbey without embarrassing or injuring ourselves. I remember talks about God and His gift of our beautiful family. Right now, I'm remembering your warm smile, the laughter in your eyes, and your gentle presence. Your love and inspiration will be here with me always, until we meet again. Patrice "Tricy Sweets"

To the Springmann Family, our most sincere condolences. We knew Mike from our neighborhood and OLL Church. What a good and kind man your father was! We are very sorry to learn of his passing. We enjoyed a long talk with him in his driveway on one of our neighborhood walks during COVID. I will remember him and all of you in my prayers.
