Mr. Gary was such a pleasant gentleman in all his interactions! Everyone at the surgery center always looked forward to his visits, especially over Thanksgiving and Christmas, when he would always deliver the most delicious fried turkeys! It was so evident in his gentle and caring character that he was a great husband and wonderful father. I know your family is so close, and both Jeannine and I send our most heartfelt sympathies during these tough times. John and Jeannine Lindsey

I am sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Gary. He was always at MQP taking pictures whenever he could. We teased with him that he should be put on the payroll as school photographer! He adored and loved his granddaughters. He will be missed. Love and prayers to all of you. Judy
