Dear Darleen, I'm so sorry to hear of Johnnie's passing. We went to school in Port Sulphur together years ago. He was smart, especially in French class. He's my 3rd cousin and I knew a lot of his relatives. He'll be missed by many friends and family. RIP, Johnnie. Tell JJ hello.

Our sincere condolences to Johnnie's family. From viewing the video created from wonderful treasured moments in time, it is obvious he was very loving and very loved. We pray you will all keep Johnnie alive through stories and keeping pictures of him around. The younger generation needs to know what a special person he was. We are never ready to have our brother, father, uncle, grandfather, or other loved one leave for their Heavenly Home. Knowing he is Saint Johnnie J. Babineaux now and is celebrating Communion With the Saints in Heaven is helpful. And Johnnie has seen the Face of God! This should be the ultimate goal of all of us. God bless all of you! In the Love of Jesus, Kathy (Olsen) and Lee Thibodeaux Port Sulphur Friends
