From the age of 23, Terry was my mentor in business. He became not only my mentor but my friend. His name for me was Michael, not Michelle. To this day, any time I hear the name Michael, I have a smile. I can hear him say' "Now Michael" any time I challenged him on a decision or "Michael can handle" any time something needed to be done in the company. We worked together for 18 years and I learn much from Terry, some things to keep and some things to change into my own. His love for his family was huge! He was so proud of his children, Francie and Terry Jr. When his grandchildren were born "Proud" was not a strong enough word. His love for Dorothy was shown any time he spoke of her or when you saw him with her. He will always have a place in my heart. My condolences to Dorothy and his family during this difficult time.Michelle Holtzclaw McDaniel

Terry and I were cousins and boyhood friends, Terry, my brother, Brooks , and I spent many summer days hunting, fishing and roaming the woods on our grandparent's farm in the Jardin community north of Commerce. My condolences and best wishes to his lovely wife, Dorothy and his children and grandchildren at this sad occasion.Larry Hanes
