Mr. King was a very special Christian brother in Christ and friend. I only knew him a few years, but I know he was a true child of God and a true believer. I will always cherish his friendship and the good times together we all had at church serving our Lord and Saviour. I loved two things he always said, "I'm alone but I'm not alone" and "I'm so happy and filled with the Holy Ghost in the service, I might just run around the room"! I truly love and miss my friend. I will see him again one day, then we can talk and sing the day away in our heavenly home. Praise God! Your friends and family in Christ, Michael & Patty Hurst
