I loved going to your house as a teen. There was always an animal to love and a meal offered. Her house was always clean, neat and welcoming. I never heard her speak a bad word about anyone. She was a true peacemaker. In college I was working at the humane society and someone brought in two puppies that had lost their mother. They needed a mother to get up every few hours to feed them as they were only two weeks old. I knew who to call and there was no hesitation. She volunteered without hesitation. She was supposed to just foster them and of course they lived out their lives as loved pets in your home. She was just a kind person standing in the background lovingly watching and helping in any way she could. I know she will be missed and I am so sorry for your loss.
