There are so many words and memories to share about the sweet and brave young man Tres turned into. I am truly at a loss for words and am sending prayers out to his family and friends. I know that God has his arms wrapped around Tres and his family. He was a light in my life and made an impact on many others. He is loved so much more than he could have ever known. He will be missed eternally.

There are so many wonderful moments that I will always cherish. My fondest is when I sat with MacKenzie and Tres and we watched a movie (Labyrinth) and would rewind one part of the movie over and over. We sang and danced and laughed. How those eyes of his could light up. He will be missed tremendously.
