Ronald Quincy Finch

MAY 28, 1989 - MAR 18, 2022

Ronald Quincy Finch, passed away on Friday, March 18, 2022. Ronald was the son of Ronald and Cindy Finch and Rhonda Terral Hernandez. He was the brother of Melissa Carter and Brandy Poole.

Melissa wrote the following tribute to her brother...

It's been two days since your light went dim. It was a privilege to have been your sister. I didn't have you for the first part of your life, but I got to have you for the last. You were so unique. You were kind and sensitive. Your heart was genuine. You were an intellectual that questioned everything. Well little brother, you left us with so many unanswered questions. I will forever be haunted by the what ifs. I hope that you are able to ride your motorcycle every chance you get. I hope that you find true friendship. I hope that you are now free of all that hurt you. I hope that you can now rest in eternal peace. I didn't say I love you nearly enough.

We all need to be kinder to each other. We all need to start listening to more than just words. We all need to be a friend to someone that desperately wants one. Maybe the world would be brighter if we can do our part to save just one more light from burning out.

There will be no services.

I am so thankful that we got to take that one motorcycle ride together to Biloxi. I made you go in front of us and kept telling Kenny "don't you let my baby brother fall off that bike!" That's just what big sisters do. How I wish I could have protected you from all the bad things in life. I will forever miss you.
