Janet Scanlan McIntyre

JAN 24, 1947 - APR 15, 2022

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, friend, and servant of God, Janet Scanlan McIntyre, left this earth to join her Heavenly Father on Good Friday, April 15, 2022 after a brief illness.

Jan is survived by her loving husband of 51 years, William Michael McIntyre, Sr.; their children, Jennifer (Scott) LeBlanc, Michael (Brandy) McIntyre, Jr., Katherine (Jason) Colgin and Elizabeth (Jacob) Daigle; and her sister, Mary (John) Jeansonne. She also leaves her eleven precious grandchildren in whose mouths the word “Granny” is a treasured and holy word.

Born January 24, 1947 in Crowley, Louisiana, Jan was the beloved youngest child of Howard Vincent Scanlan and Lucy Duhon Scanlan. After graduating from Dominican College in New Orleans, she set out on an adventure as a flight attendant for Delta Airlines. On a fateful flight from Atlanta to New York City, she met and fell in love with Mike McIntyre and they began their life together on January 9, 1971.

Settling in Shreveport, Louisiana in 1987, they raised their four children and became a beautiful example of fidelity and love.

Jan was a Catholic school educator who shaped many young hearts and minds at Loyola College Prep as the sophomore religion teacher for many years in Shreveport, LA. She was instrumental in bringing young people to Christ through her dedication and devotion.

As a spouse, mother and grandmother, she was a source of joy, and a beacon of light, who enriched the spirits and nurtured the souls of her husband, children and grandchildren. Generous with laughter, faithful in prayer, she loved to be surrounded by her family and holidays were always a beautiful cacophony of voices laughing, and enjoying one another. This was her bliss.

In her retirement, she enjoyed her family, her beautiful gardens and her home in Covington, Louisiana. Hers was a life well lived, an example of love and service, family and faith.

Jan was a teacher of youth and fellow teachers like me. She mentored me as a new Bible teacher at Loyola as I wandered through the desert in the mysteries of the Old and New Testaments! Thank you, Jan, for your powerful example, strong faith, and loving friendship. Marie Rinaudo
