Jeffrey Michael Helfritsh

JAN 5, 1962 - JUN 26, 2022

Jeffrey Michael Helfritsh was born January 5, 1962 in Metairie, Louisiana and died June 26, 2022 at his family home in Bush, Louisiana. A lifelong resident of St. Tammany Parish, he was the third and youngest child of Julius Henry Helfritsh, Jr. and Barbara Ann Feth.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Julius Henry Helfritsh and Barbara Ann Feth Jenkins; his grandparents, Julius Henry Helfritsh, Victorin Blanch Helfritsh, George Edward Feth and Haydee Ruel Feth; and his aunt, Shirley Helfritsh Kastrop.

Jeffrey is survived by his brother and sister, Julius H. "Fritz" Helfritsh and Jacqueline Ann Helfritsh; aunt, Kathy Feth Bourgeois; uncle, George E. Feth, Jr. and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Jeffrey held several certifications required for offshore employment and, being a good cook, had also prepared meals on crew boats. Through construction work, Jeffrey acquired skills ranging from carpentry to masonry to installation of carpeting and other types of flooring.

Like many members of his family, Jeffrey had a love for animals, especially cats. He enjoyed reading, including the Bible, and watching old westerns on TV. His greatest passion in life was definitely music and all things pertaining to acoustic and electric guitars. He was a quick learner and had mastered many advanced guitar techniques.

Rest in peace, Jeffrey. Your smile, quiet sense of humor and caring heart will be greatly missed.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, June 30, 2022 at 10:00 AM at the Mandeville Cemetery, 1609 Montgomery Street, Mandeville, LA 70448. --

I will always remember Jeffrey as my very first "boyfriend". We were just babies...living on either side of the empty lot on Marigny Ave. My memories are sweet of us building forts in that lot, riding bikes around the neighborhood and just enjoying the carefree days of being a country kid.
