The first meal on vacation was always his famous jambalaya. If you know, you know!

A true outdoorsman, Ronnie enjoyed hunting, fishing and spending time on his farm with his wife and animals. He always cherished his times in a duck blind, deer stand and fishing around his pond catching largemouth bass.

Ronnie lived life to the fullest and never met a stranger. Down to his last days, he made an impression on the lives of everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him. His family was his number one priority as well as the many friends that he considered family.

We will always remember his infectious smiles, laughter and unforgettable life lessons. His presence will always be with us. God Bless America!

E. J. Fielding Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements. Please sign the online guestbook at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

Debbie, I'm so sorry to hear about Ronnie's passing. I want you to know that you and Ronnie hold a very special place in my heart. I still remember the day that I interviewed with Ronnie. Ronnie was very reluctant to hire a college kid as he knew the work would be hard, I'm so glad he did. Despite hours of shoveling sand, pushing wheelbarrows full of sand, sanding fiberglass, cutting grass, shoveling out the saturated woodchips, cleaning pools, testing pool water, killing snakes to watching your boys, it was the greatest summer job I ever had. You and Ronnie made me feel like I was a small part of your family. I had hoped to come visit you and Ronnie one day and introduce you to my family, but time gets away from us. I'm sorry I can't be there to help celebrate Ronnie's life. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the boys. If you ever make it to the Pensacola area, give me a call. Love, Stephen Evans (850) 208-2049 stephen.evans@sedgwick.com
