Ron was a great friend, and always had a funny story to share with us at the gym in the mornings in Diamondhead, MS. We'll miss him as I'm sure many others will. He always had a restaurant for us to try, although some were kind of sketchy. Our condolences to his wife Rhonda, and his family.

My best friend Candy dated Ronnie all through high school and then for several years afterwards. I was the very welcomed third wheel. The three of us had so much fun during all those years. Ronnie was always game for whatever us two girls came up with. We had many, many silly, fun times and sometimes adventures together. Ronnie was always smiling and laughing. He was also the "man" who was always there for us both. He was very handsome and we were always proud to be accompanied by him. We kept in loose touch throughout the years and know what a great father he was. Ronnie, Rest in Peace...you certainly deserve to. Liz Dahlgren Schuster

Ron was a wonderful father to his daughter, Andree' and son, Ronnie, who he played tennis with, plus many other sport activities. And I remember all the great times we had together going to Andree' Beauty Pag'nts and Ronnie's games. Ron was both a great father, son and husband - always there for everyone he loved. I will be praying for all of you, the family and friends. Love Granny

Uncle Ron would love to pretend to be very conceited and vain. To make us kids laugh, he would stand in front of the mirror and sing "You Are So Beautiful" to himself and we would giggle hysterically. He was a unique jokester and so very charming. He loved everything about life so much. A very bright light has gone out of our world.
