James Everise Porche

JUL 14, 1926 - DEC 5, 2022

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Peter Catholic Church on Tuesday, December 13, 2022 at 11:00AM for James Everise Porche, 96, who passed away on December 5, 2022. Visiting hours at St. Peter Church will be Tuesday, December 13th from 10:00AM until 10:30AM followed by the prayer of the Rosary.

Reverend Daniel Broulliette will be the Celebrant of the Mass and will conduct the funeral services. Burial will take place at St. Joseph Abbey immediately following the Mass.

“Uncle Jim” as known to family and friends alike, was born in Franklin, Louisiana on July 14, 1926 to Guy Porche and Zelia Pintado Porche. He experienced the challenges of growing up during the Great Depression along with his now deceased siblings, Zelia Porche, Floramae Kraemer, Roselyn Roy, Edith Porche, Guy, Robert, Schuyler and Stanley Porche and Marie Ragan. He met the love of his life, Constance Rita DeNux and enjoyed almost 68 years of marriage until her passing in January, 2020. He lived the majority of his life in Gonzales and Baton Rouge, enjoying the last 9 golden years of his life in Covington and Bush, Louisiana with family.

Uncle Jim is survived by his numerous nieces and nephews, including Nancy Ishmael and her husband, David Ishmael, Guy L. Kraemer and his wife Teri, Helen Voorhies, Rene Porche, and a multitude of great nieces and great nephews.

Uncle Jim served in the Military Police of the Armed Services, and earned a Good Conduct Medal and World War II Victory Medal. He also served as an Airplane and Engine Mechanic. He was proud to have spent time stationed at the Panama Canal. Upon honorable discharge, he attended SLI (University of Louisiana in Lafayette) and studied drafting. He worked for Ormet Chemical Company for the majority of his life, until retirement, and then served as an inspector for East Baton Rouge Parish. He was an accomplished pilot, loved motorcycles and corvettes, dancing the jitterbug with Aunt Connie, teasing, making everyone laugh, often laughing the hardest. He was “the wise old owl”, always ready to offer words of advice. He was everyone’s greatest fan club and only saw the goodness in those he met. Uncle Jim and Aunt Connie were greatly loved by all who Uncle Jim, to me, was full of mischief and fun. He missed Aunt Connie and the loving relationship they shared. I am so happy to have known him and his family. They are, to me, what a true family should be. The good, the bad, and the ugly; whatever came their way, they dealt with it and continued to love and support each other in the end. Uncle Jim will be missed dearly by many of us.

I remember back in 1965, I was seven years old. Jim and Connie arrived at our house in Thibodaux in a 1965 blue corvette stingray. What a fine car. I ran into his arms and he lifted me high above his head into the air and held me there. I remember looking around in wonder as I had never been off the ground at that height before. It seemed as though the whole world was below me. I believe that may be the reason I live in the mountains of Colorado to this day. Guy Kraemer

Uncle Jim and Aunt Connie felt to me like second parents. I, and all of my siblings, loved them both deeply. They were always there to welcome us with a smile and a hug, and they loved us deeply as well. Once when we our family experienced an unexpected crisis, Uncle Jim drove in the middle of the night, with Aunt Connie by his side, 3 or 4 hours to come and be with us. I can never forget such selfless love. It was so comforting to have him and Aunt Connie there with us during such a difficult time. Uncle Jim would take us for rides on his motor cycle when we were kids. We always had fun when we were with him and Aunt Connie. May his soul be filled with joy, with peace, and may he be fully united with God always.

Kathleen Montgomery lit a candle in honor of James.

I had the honor and privilege of knowing and working for Uncle Jim for most of his time in Covington. What a gentleman! I enjoyed him talking about the days when he and Aunt Connie were young, all the dances, their travels, and how much he enjoyed entertaining the family at his house. He made me part of his family. He lived a long wonderful live and now is with his beloved Connie. Uncle Jim, I'll never forget you, you will always be in my prayers and heart. Kathleen
