

Nancy Kristine Ress

MAR 19, 1953 - JAN 17, 2023

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

| | |
|---------------------------|--------|
| Obituary | Page 3 |
| Tribute Wall | Page 5 |

Nancy Kristine Ress

MAR 19, 1953 - JAN 17, 2023

Nancy Kristine Ress (née Mosora) passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. She was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 19, 1953.

She is survived by her loving husband of 41 years, Kenneth Raymond Ress, and her daughter, Amanda. She was the sister of Janice (Tab) Cadwallader and is also survived by nieces, nephews, cousins, and wonderful lifelong friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Helen Mumford Mosora and Jack Mosora.

She was a native of Michigan and a resident of Mandeville, LA since 1991.

Cooking, crafting, gardening, and all God's creatures were just a few of her lifelong passions. She had recently begun to attend Bible Study at First Baptist Church of Covington, which she dearly loved. She was never happier than the times she spent on the shores of Lake Michigan and Pensacola Beach.

She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in memory of Nancy can be made to the St Francis Animal Sanctuary of Mandeville.

Her family would like to thank the doctors and nurses of the ICU at Lakeview Regional Medical Center for their loving care and support.

All services are private.

E.J. Fielding Funeral Home locally owned and operated, (985) 892-9222 has been entrusted with funeral arrangements. The Ress family kindly invites you to share thoughts, fondest memories,

Obituary

Nancy Kristine Ress

MAR 19, 1953 - JAN 17, 2023

and condolences online at E. J. Fielding Funeral Home Guest Book at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

Tribute Wall

Nancy Kristine Ress

MAR 19, 1953 - JAN 17, 2023

PH

Paula Haefner posted:

I enjoyed my friendship with Nancy during the many years we lived in the same neighborhood. She was a vivacious, friendly, hilarious friend. We shared many tears and so much laughter. I'm so grateful to have had lunch with her not too long ago. My heart and prayers are with her family. May she Rest in Peace with our Lord.

January 24 at 8:47 AM

CS

Craig Stabnau posted:

I knew Nancy from high school and I regularly talked to her on Facebook. I take comfort in knowing that she was a follower of Jesus and that she is in his heavenly embrace. God rest her soul.

January 23 at 6:52 PM

JC

Julie Chappuis lit a candle in honor of Nancy.

Nancy was the first person to welcome us to the neighborhood and the thoughtful gifts and kind gestures never stopped coming. Amazing treats from her kitchen, plants from her yard, bones for the dog, friendship bread, and my favorite... crocheted breastfeeding caps for my grandbabies. When my daughter was overseas for a year she gave us a jar of 12 paper flowers - one for each month as we waited for her return. Heaven holds a special for people like Nancy. My heart is broken for you Ken, Mandy and Jan. May God grant peace to all those who love and miss her. ❤️🙏

January 20 at 1:54 PM

JW

Jennifer Walkenford posted:

I'm sad. I'm praying for you Ken and Mandy, and Nancy. I love Nancy. I have many great memories but favorite memories include watching Nancy entertaining the boys with critters, and birds, any animal really in ya'lls front yard. That relationship that Nancy built with the boys remains so special. But for me she was a gift especially when not feeling well or her just knowing how to step in and help. I'm grateful for Nancy in my life. May God bless you with peace and knowing that you are loved.

January 20 at 5:13 AM

Tribute Wall

Nancy Kristine Ress

MAR 19, 1953 - JAN 17, 2023

RT

Robert Troncoso lit a candle in honor of Nancy.

Ken I am so sorry for your loss. Our prayers are with you. If I can be of any assistance at this time of deepest sorrow, please do not hesitate to reach out. You're in our prayers. Robert T.

January 20 at 5:07 AM

CW

Carol Werts posted:

To Ken, Mandy and Jan, I just want to let you know how heart broken I am for the loss of Nancy. Although we had our differences I loved her and knew that eventually we would repair our friendship. Please know that you are all in my prayers.

January 20 at 3:38 AM

NI

Nikki lit a candle in honor of Nancy.

I've been struggling to find the right words...and I just can't. So, I'll do the best I can. Ken, Mandy...and Jan...I can't remember when I've ever been as heart-broken as I am right now. I've known Nance for so long, and I can't imagine not hearing the 'HEY, NIK!' on the other end of the line. When I had something big (or little, really) that I needed to say, she was my 'go to girl'. We shared so much over the last 47 years. She was the first one to come when I had my babies. She was the first one (and sometimes the only one) to stand up for me in any situation. She was on my side, no matter what. Just like I'd have HER back...no matter what, even though we were miles apart. We never let each other down...and it's rare to find a friend like she was to me. We just clicked, back in 1976, and I can't imagine what my life would have been like without her in it. I can't imagine what it's going to be like without her now. I treasure the memories, but I will be sad for a long, long time. It's almost unbearable for me right now. But I will look for little signs from her, letting me know that she's still with me. And I know she is and always will be. Though my heart is broken, I also know her heart, and I know she's with her Lord and Savior right now, waiting for the rest of us to get there. This is hard to write, but I want you all to know how much she means to me still. I love you all, and I thank you for sharing your wife, your mother, and your sister with me. Watch for the 'signs'...if anybody would find a way to send them, Nance will. I'm lighting a yellow candle in her honor, just like she did for me when my son was deployed so many times. She was so proud. And to my Nance...I love you...Nik

January 19 at 2:17 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Nancy by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit