Robert "Bob" Raposo

JAN 2, 1942 - MAR 27, 2023

Bob Raposo entered into eternal glory on March 27, 2023. He was born in Somerville, Massachusetts on January 2, 1942. Bob lived in Saudi Arabia for 8 years of his childhood before moving to Jacksonville, Florida at age 15. He met Anne Lester, and was married to the love of his life for 57 years.

Bob was a faithful Christian who had a vibrant sense of humor. He had a successful career in sales and was a gifted engineer. He enjoyed golf, traveling, music and great cuisine.

Bob is survived by his loving wife Anne Lester Raposo; his son Robert "Reed" Raposo, Jr., grandchildren Robert Reed Raposo, III and Randall Ryce Raposo; his daughter Laura Lynn Raposo Loman with son-in-law Seamus Martin Loman, grandchildren Brady Cade Loman, Anna Grace Loman, Bryce Edward Loman, Emily Hope Loman, Samuel Martin Loman and Margaret Lynn Loman; his daughter-in-law Katie Boudreaux Raposo, grandchildren Katelyn Anne Raposo, John Randolph Raposo and William Riley Raposo; his elder brother Donald Raposo.

He was preceded in death by his son, Randolph "Scott" Raposo, his parents Mabel Helen Transue Raposo and Donald Raposo, as well as his younger brother Richard Raposo.

A worship service, in memory of Robert Reed Raposo, will be Wednesday, April 5, 2023 at 11 AM at New Covenant Presbyterian Church in Mandeville, Louisiana with reception immediately following in the church fellowship hall. Visitation will be open before the service from 10:00-11:00 AM.

In honor of Bob, donations are welcome to be sent to Lifeline Children's Services, a gospel-centered ministry committed to serving orphans. Donations can be made online at www.lifelinechild.org/how-to-donate/ where you are able to send a custom card with donation, if desired.

Anne, I am sorry to see that you have lost your husband of so many years. You have lost a son as well and I know your heart must hurt. I love unexpected connections with people and knowing your cousin Beverly is one. I also knew Richard at Lakeshore and see he is gone too. I will continue to enjoy our friendship via Facebook and maybe we will see each other sometime. God bless you during this time. With Love, Jane Carrison Bockel
