I remember Anna taking such good care of her grandson and my friend, Brian Picou, when he was home from college. She was always so kind and supportive. She was very gracious in hosting whenever I would come by to visit. She now gets to enjoy her eternal reward. May God bless her family as they will miss her.

I have so many happy memories of my Aunt Anna. Aunt Anna always made sure all of us kids, her 3 children, many nieces, many nephews had a good time. Some of my fondest memories are going to the amusement park, birthday parties, movies, snowball stand, & to the beach. All of us kids knew we would have a good time with Aunt Anna. I will always treasure these memories and love my Aunt Anna very much. My deepest sympathy, love, & prayers to Aunt Anna's children & their families. Gay Elizabeth Tolle Crain
