Condolences to the Jones Family. Finas was truly a pleasant man, he was aptly named. He was always a happy individual and ready to help with anything that was asked of him. I knew him growing up, as he was a member of Playmakers Theater of Covington with my father. Not a bombastic man- only a good one. You are remembered sir, and your contributions appreciated.

I worked in the same building with Finas for 10 years. Every morning he would walk into my office and say, "greetings, greetings! He was always upbeat and happy.
