William Louis Rosevally, Jr., at the age of 100, entered eternal rest peacefully on Monday morning, April 3, 2023, at his family home surrounded by his loving family. He was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on February 3, 1923, to William Louis Rosevally, Sr. and Pauline DeGruy Rosevally.

He is survived by his loving wife Frances Macaluso Rosevally of 78 years, his children Mary Ann Rosevally Frisard (Earle), Dorothy Rosevally Siverd (Emmett), Charles A. Rosevally (Darlene), Walter R. Rosevally (the late Martha), Diane Rosevally Judice (Frank), George A. Rosevally (Julie), Anthony J. Rosevally (Lisa), and Lisa Rosevally, and his 25 grandchildren and 43 great grandchildren. He had a lasting impact on many young people who still remember him fondly. He was well known by fellow coaches from other playgrounds. However, his true passion was spending time with his loving family and friends. Hi, I extend my warmest condolences to the family. I have beautiful memories of your loved one. He was my coach at Carrollton Boosters 100 pound football in 1967. I weighed 65. I remember the first practice like it was yesterday. It was a scrimmage on a Thursday night under the lights. I have never been more excited, or happier, as that first night at Carrollton. I had cleats and everything. Late in the scrimmage, Coach Rosevally put me at linebacker. Someone said, 'Plug the hole.' After the scrimmage, Coach Rosevally excoriated the team - called 'em a bunch of pussies, etc. Then he switched directions. He said, 'Only one of you showed any guts out there tonight! The new kid.' He looked at me, 'Stand up. What's your name?' To be singled out, to win praise, to feel special, Bill Rosevally did all that for me. But he made me earn it. That was part of his gift. Mr. Bill was our coach at Incarnate Word School in the 1950s for all sports. He was a 2nd father to us young boys. In his eyes we were all equal in athletic ability. He was an outstanding role model. He instilled in us fairness, sportsmanship, respect for ourselves and our opponents. My deepest condolences to Mrs. Rosevally, their children and other family members! Guy Lund
