Thanks to my dear sister Angela, my teenage years in Chile were some of the best in my life, we were a fun team, learning English together, listening to music together, learning about life together. Those years were the safest time in our lives, fun was clean and safe, it was a gift. Our love of English brought us to different states of U.S.A hence learned English with different accents other than our own 2nd language accent. We have shared beautiful and nicest children that will keep our memories alive to pass on. My dear sister, save me a space to continue exploring our next life together again. God be with you.
