We will always remember our Christmas employee dinners which we were blessed to share with Roy and his sweet wife, our awesome employee, Kris. We will, for sure, remember him and miss him. His good heart will surely allow him to be n paradise and be among the heavenly angels. We will miss you, Roy!! Our sincerest condolences to Kris and her family. Prayers that God will heal her broken heart with memories of all the good times and even the rough times they shared throughout the years they were together proving their love for each other. We pray for peace and comfort for his children, at this time of sorrow, for the loss of their father.
