He was preceded in death by his grandparents Russell and Betty Hagerty Thurston and Joseph Senseney, Sr. and Elvira Senseney. He is survived by his loving wife of 24 years, Kellie Mixon Senseney, his children Sydney Senseney and Mixon Senseney, his parents Joe and Rae Senseney, his sister Jill Stewart (Russell) and also many nieces and nephews.

Jeff had a way to make your day and to make you feel better even when he was not well himself. He had a gift! His heart was kind and pure. I feel he was sent straight down from heaven. I thank the Lord for Jeff. For all who have loss their loved ones, It feels as though your loved one reached into your chest and took a big piece of your heart with them but they also gave you a piece of theirs to keep. I will honor Jeff's love and his life forever and celebrate that he gave me such a beautiful heart to keep! Thank you Jeff, I will love and miss you forever. Your favorite Aunt Lynn

This has come to as a real shock— I can still see Jeff coming through my front door with a big bootle of Kentwood water on his shoulder— always smiling! Then Jill yells at him "Ive got the girl for you". She and Jeff talked then he called Kellie— as Jill said " A match made in heaven". Jeff was my water man for a while and you couldn't help but love this Teddy Bear of a man. I'm so sorry for your loss! Kathy &David Perrault
