I send my sincerest condolences for the loss of your mother. Jimmy and Catherine were the best neighbors a young couple with a new baby could have ever asked for. There were always looking out for us and helping me when I panicked over some ridiculous incident with Max. I have kept them both in my heart and mind for 45 years and know you will miss her. Be happy that she lived a wonderful life and had wonderful children and grandchildren who loved her. Rest In Peace you wonderful woman.

Dave's siblings visited Jean & Dave in their beautiful new home in New Orleans in October 2022. An absolute highlight of the trip was the afternoon we spent with Catherine and Cathy & Craig. Catherine joined us for lunch and regaled us with stories of her life and her children. Her humorous observations left all of the Vossen's laughing and in awe of her quick and wonderful intelligence and humor. We absolutely loved the day we got to spend with Jean's mom and family and are so grateful for their hospitality. We'll all remember her for the remarkable force of nature that she was. RIP Catherine and thank you for raising Jean and giving us such a great sister-in-law.
