She is survived by her children, Timothy Shea, Sr., (Holley), Ita Marie Shea Oglesby (Gayle), Patrick Shawn Shea (Theresa) and Kelly Shea Grunditz (Tommy); her grandchildren, Meghan Rose Shea, Emily Shea Robin, Kylene Shea, Kathleen Parsons (Matthew), Tim Shea, Jr., Jonas Grunditz (Erin), Anders Grunditz (Lindsey); great-grandchildren, Logan Robin, Charlotte Robin, Aidan Flynn, Jack Flynn, Stella Parsons, Braylen Parsons, Orrin Grunditz and Ivar Grunditz. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold J. Shea, Jr.; one son, Harold J. Shea, III., her parents Anna Mae Harmon Cuadrado and Joseph Frank Cuadrado, Sr.; her sister, Irene Cuadrado Boasso.

Ninety years young, she was still sharp, vivacious, curious, and loving.

Joyce always put her family first. Family meant the world to her. Happiness was being surrounded by family, friends, good food & laughter.

She was always available for all the school events, church functions, for her kids, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Whether it was PTA, Booster Club, Altar Society, Friends of the Library, talent shows, plays, or numerous sporting events. This also included anything else Dad signed her up for including working with him for thirty-four years.

Her friends for life included those she just met and loved, or friends from grade school, high school, and Dads years in the Airforce. A special shout out to her Hill Country, Texas friends.
