Steve, I would like to express my deepest condolences on the passing of Diana. Don't know if you remember me but use to see both of you at LSU games and also at St Anselm Church. It is very hard to lose our spouse after being together for so many years as it's been 5 years since losing mine. Take care and I will keep you in my prayers.

Our condolences to Steve, Gina and Steven and the entire family. Diana was a lovely woman and her caring ways were boundless. She loved her family, friends and neighbors. She was a devoted Catholic and loved our Lord. Clarence and I were blessed to have Diana as our neighbor and friend.

Diana was one of the most caring and giving persons I have known. She and Steve were long time friends of my late husband Jack and me from Gatlinburg TN. I will miss her beautiful smile and caring spirit until we meet again. I trust she and Jack are sharing hugs now.
