Kelly Super

FEB 19, 1961 - NOV 18, 2023

It is with heavy hearts and great sadness that we announce the passing of Kelly Super, the owner-operator of The Beach House Bar and Grill.

Kelly Joe Super passed away on November 18, 2023. He is survived by his loving sons, Zakary Super and Tory Super. He is also survived by his brother, niece, cousins, and wonderful lifelong friends.

Throughout his 17 years of ownership at The Beach House, Kelly wished for the community to gather, enjoy each other's company, and relish in the simpler times. As an avid music lover, Kelly shared his joy of music with those around him, and those who knew him best will always remember him with a guitar in hand.

Kelly embodied the beach lifestyle and laid-back philosophy of "Life's Better at the Beach", and he worked with a passion to spread this ideology here in Mandeville since 2006.

Before The Beach House, Kelly was a bartender, club owner, and Brinker International Area Director for over a decade.

Kelly, a beloved family member and friend to many throughout the years, cared deeply about the people around him. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Mr. Super may be made to the GoFundMe to help fund funeral costs and a celebration of life at: www.gofundme.com/f/kelly-super

Funeral services will be announced in early 2024.

The legacy of Kelly Super cannot be understated, and Kelly's family and friends are working to preserve Kelly's legacy and The Beach House into the future, please stay tuned for further details.
