Early in her career, Donna worked in marketing with TWA in Los Angeles, and later as a real estate agent in Houston, Texas and Laguna Hills, California. Donna was predeceased by her first husband, David Fogg, whom she married in New Orleans. They lived together in California with their daughter, Molly. Donna will forever be loved by her daughter Molly Fogg Kardwell and Donna's siblings Bruce Davidson (Kathy), Karen Montelepre (Joseph), Terrie Gerakines (Jim), and Leslie Nichols (Vic). Donna's endless love and compassion will live on in the hearts of her beloved grandchildren, nieces and nephews, as well as her many friends and neighbors.

I've known Donna since she was 15 years old and I have been a friend of the family ever since. Wonderful, beautiful family. Her mother, Elizabeth, was my best friend for 51 years before she passed away. Donna was then and always was a character. She could tell a story or read a funny story with much exaggeration and embellishments, so that by the time she was through everyone was laughing so hard we couldn't hear her anyway. She was a fun and delightful person, worked very hard and persevered through difficulties, and came out being a better person. My daughters and I loved her dearly as we love all of the Davidson family. Benita Swanson
