I am so saddened to hear of "Little" John's passing. It seems as though I just saw him at the Dollar General where we were talking about horses and camping in the rice fields with my Daddy. He even reminded me about going to the river lot we had in Mississippi with everyone! So much fun we had with our Koppenol family friends. He was a kind, gentle soul. He will definitely be remembered most fondly by our family. May he rest easy at the feet of Jesus. Love, Debbie Beckham-Huther and Family
