Dorothy Jean Rowe

MAY 7, 1928 - AUG 12, 2024

Dorothy Jean Rowe, aged 96, passed away quietly of natural causes, entering her Heavenly rest on Monday, August 12, 2024.

She was born in Wills Point, TX, May 7, 1928, but after marriage to Eugene W. Rowe of Houston, TX in March of 1948, she spent most of her life calling New Orleans, LA her home.

In her latter years, though retiring happily across Lake Pontchartrain to the North Shore's Mandeville community, she continued to keep the culture and fond memories of 'old' New Orleans dear to her heart. However, she never forsook her Texas roots, keeping close the extended Goode and Rowe families, visiting as often as possible well into her eighties the many relatives and friends who lived across that state.

It has been said that wherever Jean went, whether it be in her professional career as "Mrs. Rowe", community service as "Miss Jean", or family life as "Jean", "Mom" or "Nana", she brought light, laughter and love into her role.

Always showering gifts upon family and friends alike, she was well known for the gifts of respect and kindness showered upon all she encountered. Jean's life will be most readily remembered as having been exemplary of self-sacrifice for the good of others—her own generous version of keeping The Golden Rule. As such, she will be fondly remembered and missed by all who knew and loved her.

She is survived by: Children, Robert E. Rowe, Linda J. Oldacre (Joe) and Scott E. Rowe (Leslie); Grandchildren, Molly Rowe, Adam Oldacre (Christina), Elizabeth Oldacre, Sierra Rowe, Ryker Rowe and Cheyenne Rowe; Great-grandchildren Jacob Oldacre, Olivia Oldacre and Louise-Amelia Bresnitz; "Honorary daughter" Kim Jourdan Lomonaco (Ronnie); many nieces, nephews, cousins, and wonderful friends. She was preceded in death by her parents Floy Parker Goode and James H. Goode; siblings Van D. Hubbard (Mary), Harlan Goode (Inez), Mildred Goode Green (Frank)

Lynn Freeman posted:

Dear Rowe Family, Miss Jean became a second mother to Mark and I and a grandmother to our children, Danielle and Dane. We met the day we moved in across the street and she has stayed in our hearts ever since. Moving away was one of the hardest things because we couldn't bring her with us. With Love, Mark, Lynn, Danielle and Dane Freeman
