Gaylen was a wonderful lady. My first encounter with her at Christwood was when I passed her in the hallway with a "good morning." She stopped in her tracks turn around and said "what's my name?" I apologized and said there is so many residents it's hard to remember. She said "my name is Gaylen Beatty" and from that moment I never forgot her name. I have enjoyed the last 12 years of greeting Gaylen when we encountered each other around Christwood. May God Bless Gaylen and her family.
