Margaret Guillory Bordelon

OCT 2, 1942 - JAN 11, 2025

Margaret Guillory Bordelon passed away peacefully in her sleep on Saturday, January 11, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. She is survived by her husband of 62 years, David J. Bordelon, Sr., her children, Laurie Charbonnet (Chris), David J. Bordelon, Jr. (Dayna) and Steven Bordelon (Lizabeth), her grandchildren, Laine Dyson (David), Lexie Tuminski (Jesse), Paige Bowman (Ryan), Sydney Charbonnet, and Aidan Charbonnet, and her great grandchildren, Ellis Dyson, Parker Dyson, Collins Tuminski, Beck Tuminski, and Evelyn Bowman. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest Guillory and Mae Bonnet Guillory, her sisters, Lois Roach and Vivian Riser, and her brother, Jerry Guillory.

Margaret was born in New Orleans and was a longtime resident of Covington, LA. Affectionately known as 'Mawmaw', she was an exceptional baker, Hallmark movie enthusiast, penny slot extraordinaire, and master fisher woman. She was never without a smile and devoted her life to being the best wife, mother, and grandmother you could ever ask for.

Rest in peace my dear sweet sister-in-law. Heaven is a sweeter place because you are there. My house will never be as clean as when you would come and help me clean. I couldn't even keep up with you!! Barry and I are deeply saddened by your loss. Prayers to you David. We love you deeply. Debbie Bordelon

I spent a lot of time with my Aunt Margaret when I was young and growing up because Laurie and I were so close. I slept at their house a lot and she treated me like one of her own. There are so many great memories with her but the most memorable were all the fun times we had going to parades. She loved Mardi Gras; and my family along with Aunt Margaret, Uncle Dave, and their kids spent many long weekends together at the parades especially at Thoth, Endymion and Bacchus. She loved to fight us for the beads and doubloons! Great memories riding on the truck for many years on Mardi Gras day. I spent many weekends with her at the camp and Easter weekends especially are some of the most memorable. She acted just like one of the kids - throwing water balloons at my children from the balcony of her camp and always making her special Easter Bunny cookies. She would bring a whole bucket of them for us. I remember when Nicholas first moved out of state, she made him a whole bucket because she knew how much he loved them. He was so touched when we brought them all the way to Philadelphia for him. She was so special and always wanted to have fun and enjoy our time together. Never heard her say anything bad about anyone. Aunt Margaret, you will be missed but I know I will see you again one day in God's heavenly kingdom and I will be ready for that water balloon fight!

My nanny was the best, she was always there when I needed her. When I was just a child, she would drive from Metairie to Chalmette just to pick me up so I could go by her house for weekend sleepovers. There were times when her, and David would have to bring me back as soon as they got me. But, then turn around and bring me back to her house. Only because I would cry to go right back. That's how my nanny was. Nothing ever bothered her, and if it did she would never say a word. When I got older I would go fishing with her and David, there was a time, when she told me to make like I was pushing David in the water off the boat. We'll, I literally pushed him in the gulf of Mexico. He lost his glasses, watch and hat. Boy was he mad, but my nanny was laughing so hard that she made me laugh and Dave was furious with both of us. That was my Nan. She laughed at everything. I never seen her mad. When I got married she did our wedding cakes and boy were they awesome. I told her she needed to start her own business. But, she didn't she continue being a great Mother, Wife, MawMaw and my Nanny. She never missed my birthday nor did I miss hers. My Nanny was like my Mother. I will miss you so much nanny. Till we meet again. R.I.P.
