I will always remember how proud Mr. Floyd was when Katie won the 'City of Covington' award at the Three Rivers Art Festival. He stood alongside her little booth with Mrs. Virginia and told everyone who passed by 'that's my daughter!' It was a sweet memory that I hope lives on in her mind forever. I always would make a point to say hello whenever I would see him at Fresh Market. He always greeted me with a big smile and an even bigger hug. Years later I'd see him every so often at my work and he never missed the opportunity to ask about what I was up to and how have I been. Prayers to Katie and family ❤️ love you guys

Floyd and I worked together in the publishing business many years ago and it was never a dull moment. He was intelligent and creative, always coming up with new ideas. He never slowed down and had a zest for life. He pushed everyone to be better and had an energy level that I could never keep up with. I wish him peace and serenity forever. Vic Johnson
